

Lady Chiefs bounce back with wins over Neville, Evangel and Airline

SHREVEPORT, La. - The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs volleyball team defeated the Neville Lady Tigers (25-16, 25-9), Evangel (25-12, 25-11) and Airline ((25-17, 25-13) Saturday in the Northwood-Shreveport Tournament to the Silver Bracket.

The Lady Chiefs (2-2) had lost their previous two matches coming into Saturday with a pair of losses to Byrd on Wednesday in four sets and Friday in three sets.

NCHS started the day off with a win over Neville at 9 am before following it up with the domination of Evangel at noon then clinched the Silver Bracket with the win over Airline.

Natchitoches Central will be back in action Monday on the road against Loyola Prep in Shreveport at 6 p.m.

Individual stats for the tournament

Ellie Wilson – 24 assists

Maggie Massia – 22 assists, four kills, six digs

Tatum Kay – 14 kills, eight digs

Ainsley Weeks – 16 kills, four digs

Ehren Guidroz – nine kills, 10 solo blocks

Maddie Dupuy – eight kills, two digs, three solo blocks

Alison Key – six kills, two digs

Ayla Payne – six kills, two digs

Campbell Morrow – 37 digs

Brooklyn Smith – two kills, three solo blocks

Cambree Jimmerson – three digs

Kendall Rhodes – four digs

Team Aces – 34