

Lady Chiefs bounce back with win at home over Evangel

NATCHITOCHEs, La. - The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs rolled past the Evangel Lady Eagles Monday night in non-district volleyball action at NCHS, 25-5, 25-5 and 25-10.

The Lady Chiefs (17-6) rebounded nicely from a tough weekend at the Covenant Christian Tournament in Houma, Louisiana. NCHS lost four of five matches but had little trouble Monday in getting back on the winning track.

NCHS entered Monday ranked 11th in the Division II power rankings with less than a month to go in the regular season.

Next up, NCHS will play at Booker T. Washington-Shreveport in district play at 5:30 p.m.
