

Lady Chiefs lose four of five matches at Covenant Christian Tourney

HOUMA, La. - The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs lost four out of five matches this weekend at the Covenant Christian Tournament in Houma.

The Lady Chiefs (16-6) entered the weekend on a 14-match winning streak before losing to Ascension Catholic Friday night 16-25 and 22-25. NCHS also lost their second match Friday falling to Central Catholic 26-28 and 12-25.

Saturday, NCHS won their first match of the day beating New Iberia 25-18 and 25-20. However, they dropped the next two matches to Barbe and Belle Chase.

Next up, the Lady Chiefs will Evangel Monday night at 6 p.m.