

Lady Chiefs win 10th straight with blow out of Acadiana

IOWA, La. - The Natchitoches Central Lady Chiefs won their 10th straight game with a 62-19 victory over the Acadiana Lady Rams Friday night in the Iowa Tournament.

The Lady Chiefs (12-1) had four players in double figures led by Annalise Newton with 16 points. Katlynn Wiggins had 16 points as well and also had nine steals and seven rebounds. Akeelah Wade chipped in with 13 while Jakaila Ware had 10 points and seven rebounds.

Next up, the Lady Chiefs will play Saturday at 11:30 a.m. in the semifinals of the Iowa Tournament against an opponent TBA.