

Lady Chiefs' volleyball team has five selected to All-District team

NATCHITOCHES, La. - The Natchitoches Central Chiefs' volleyball team had five named to the All-District 1-Division II team Sunday.

The Lady Chiefs (27-9) won their district under fourth year head coach Kerri Kiracofe, the district coach of the year, before falling to Kenner Discover Health Science in the second round.

NCHS's senior Ainsley Weeks was named the District 1 Player of the Year. Senior Campbell Morrow earned Defensive Player of the Year while junior Tatun Kay was the Defensive Player of the Year.

Senior Maddie Dupuy also received honors as she earned a first team all-district selection.
